The founder and leader of the Anointed Palace Chapel (APC) Reverend Obofour Antwi has allegedly commanded cash (credit) onto the Mobile Money wallets of his congregants.

In a video YEN.com.gh sighted on Tindstar GH, Reverend Obofour was seen dancing happily in the church. Intermittently, some of the church members were spotted rushing towards Obofour with testimonies that they had gone to cash monies from their mobile money accounts.

The monies, YEN.com.gh gathered from the testimonies, had been conjured from the heavens onto the accounts of the respective beneficiaries. Many of the recipients of the 'conjured' cash counted their money in front of the whole congregation.

The recipients claimed to have received amounts ranging from GHC300 to GHC500. "I've not come here before. This is my first time of coming here," a lady who claimed to have received GHC500 excitedly said.

Another said: "When I was coming, I did not have anything on me and I even had to borrow money to come," one lady who claimed to have got GHC500 said.

The church who were amazed to have gotten the instant could be seen counting the cash in front of the congregation whiles they heap praises on the man of God.
